PAPE-DAWSON ENGINEERS, LLC ACQUIRES TENNESSEE-BASED FIRM RAGANSMITH

Civil engineering firm continues to expand geographic reach through acquisitions

Nashville, TN (March 18, 2024) – Pape-Dawson Engineers, LLC has acquired Tennessee-based engineering firm, RaganSmith, as part of its strategy to expand its industry-leading civil engineering, surveying, and land planning practice across the United States.

Established in 1933, RaganSmith’s 170 team members offer professional civil engineering, surveying, land planning, landscape architecture, transportation, and environmental services. The firm is headquartered in Nashville, Tennessee with additional locations in Chattanooga and Murfreesboro. RaganSmith is Pape-Dawson’s first acquisition in Tennessee.

“RaganSmith shares our commitment to excellence in engineering and promotes a culture that encourages growth, giving back, and industry leadership,” said Pape-Dawson President, Gene Dawson. “Our similar values were a key factor in our decision to pursue this partnership. We are excited to welcome this talented group to the Pape-Dawson family.”

“Joining Pape-Dawson will provide remarkable opportunities for our firm, our clients, and, most importantly, our employees,” stated Joe Griffin, CEO at RaganSmith. “We’re thrilled to be a part of a growing, reputable organization that embodies excellence in all areas, including its people.”
