Marc Stehli, P.E., Promoted to Senior Vice President

Pape-Dawson Proudly Announces the Promotion of Marc Stehli

ORLANDO, Florida (June 2, 2026) – Pape-Dawson is pleased to announce the promotion of Marc Stehli, P.E., to Senior Vice President.

Based in Central Florida, Marc has over 33 years of experience delivering planning, design, and permitting solutions for complex land development projects. Throughout his career, he has provided strategic leadership on large-scale master-planned communities, infrastructure improvements, and power industry projects across multiple states.

Marc's expertise spans the full project lifecycle, from early due diligence and entitlement through final design and construction coordination. He is recognized for his ability to navigate complex regulatory environments, lead multidisciplinary teams, and deliver thoughtful infrastructure solutions that support sustainable regional growth.

Since joining the firm, Marc has established himself as a trusted leader for both clients and colleagues, bringing a steady, solutions-oriented approach to every project. His ability to balance technical precision with long-term project vision has contributed to the success of high-profile developments throughout the region.

"Marc's depth of experience and commitment to excellence have made a lasting impact on both our clients and our team," said Lance Bennett, P.E., Principal at Pape-Dawson. "His leadership, technical knowledge, and dedication to mentoring others continue to strengthen our organization, and we are excited to see him step into this new role."

In his new role as Senior Vice President, Marc will continue to advance strategic growth initiatives, lead complex project efforts, and help shape the firm's future in Florida.
