Pape-Dawson Recognized as a 2026-2027 U.S. News & World Report Best Company to Work For

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (July 27, 2026) – Pape-Dawson has been named a 2026-2027 U.S. News & World Report Best Company to Work For. The recognition highlights organizations that foster outstanding workplace experience and overall employee satisfaction through promoting well-being, career development, and workplace culture.

With more than 2,150 employees across 46 offices in 10 states, Pape-Dawson has experienced significant growth while maintaining the people-first culture that has defined the firm for more than 60 years. This commitment is reflected in the firm's employee turnover rate, which remains well below the industry average, as well as workforce longevity and continued investment in professional development.

"This recognition reflects the culture our employees work very hard to build each day," said Trey Dawson, P.E., President of Pape-Dawson. "As we've grown across the country, we've remained focused on creating an environment where people feel supported, challenged, and inspired to do their best work. Our employees are the foundation of our success, and we're honored to be recognized among the top companies to work for in the nation."

The U.S. News & World Report Best Companies to Work For rankings evaluate organizations using independent data across several workplace factors that matter most to employees, including quality of pay and benefits, work-life balance, professional development opportunities, job stability, and company culture. Pape-Dawson earned five-star ratings across nearly every evaluated category, reflecting the firm's continued commitment to providing an exceptional employee experience.

Pape-Dawson employees have the opportunity to work on transformative infrastructure, land development, water, transportation, aviation, and energy projects while collaborating with multidisciplinary teams across the country. The firm provides clear career paths and regular growth opportunities through mentorship, leadership development, continuing education, and a workplace culture built on integrity, innovation, and service.

"This recognition reinforces our belief that investing in our people is essential to delivering exceptional service to our clients and communities," added Sam Dawson, CEO of Pape-Dawson.
